A Serious Accident.

Mr. J. T. Burdette, employed at the Brightmood power house, met with a very serious and painful accident. While assisting some men to raise some heavy timber about the smokestack the timber above cave way and struck Mr. Burthe timber above gave way and struck Mr. Burdette with great force, knocking him senseless. Two of his ribs were broken and it is feared he is injured internally. He was cared for at the power house and then sent to his home, No. 235 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, where his physician, Dr. A. E. Johnson, was summoned. The men who witnessed the crash say it was a miracle he was not instantly killed.
